THE MONKEES: THE MIKE AND MICKY SHOW LIVE

Their careers may have begun as part of a sitcom in 1966, but The Monkees became one of the most beloved rock-pop bands of their era. Micky Dolenz, Michael Nesmith, Peter Tork and Davy Jones went on to record music until 1971, three years after the sitcom's cancellation. Dolenz and Nesmith, the band's two living members, have released an album of the group's hits and deep cuts, including "Pleasant Valley Sunday," "Daydream Believer," "Last Train to Clarksville" and "Good Clean Fun," a compilation of live recordings.

5 THINGS YOU DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT

CHUCK TODD

1 The 48-year-old moderator of NBC's Sunday morning roundtable talk show Meet The Press says his interest in politics developed slowly over time, starting when was "forced to watch prime-time news conferences with Jimmy Carter or Ronald Reagan or the debates and conventions."

2 He reads something from one major newspaper from each state every day to stay familiar with the world outside of Washington D.C.

3 He goes for a 2.5-mile run every morning at 4:30.

4 Todd grew up in Miami, is a fan of the Green Bay Packers and has family roots in Iowa.

SWEET 'N' SLOW

Dessert doesn't get any easier—or more delicious—than this five-ingredient treat, especially when it's topped with a scoop of vanilla ice cream! And don't skip the paper-towel step, which will prevent the cake from getting soggy.

SLOW COOKER CHERRY PINEAPPLE DUMP CAKE

- 1 (20-oz) can crushed pineapple with juice
- 1 (21-oz) can cherry pie filling
- 1 (16.25-oz) box golden butter cake mix
- ½ cup butter, melted
- ¼ cup sliced almonds, toasted

1. Coat the bottom and sides of a 6-quart oval slow cooker with cooking spray. Spread pineapple on the bottom of slow cooker. Spread the cherry pie filling over pineapple.

2. In a medium-size mixing bowl, combine butter and cake mix until crumbly. Sprinkle over the fruit.

3. Cover the opening of the slow cooker, on top of the ingredients and beneath the lid, with doubled paper towels then fit the lid firmly on top. Cook on HIGH 2 to 3 hours, or on LOW 4 to 5 hours, until golden and a toothpick inserted into the center shows moist crumbs.

4. Rest uncovered 20 minutes. Top with almonds. Serves 8

HEALTH

5 WAYS TO MAXIMIZE
APPOINTMENTS

It's easy to feel overwhelmed around doctors, but a little preparation can lead to a better, more productive visit.

- 1 BE PUNCTUAL Arrive 15 to 20 minutes early for your appointment, so you have plenty of time to check in and have your vitals (height, weight, blood pressure) taken. This will also ensure you have as much time as possible with your doctor.
- 2 MAKE A LIST Write down all current medications (including herbal and dietary supplements) and any questions or concerns ahead of time. These are too easy to forget if you try to rely on memory alone.
- 3 SHARE YOUR FAMILY HEALTH HISTORY Be able to communicate any medical changes or new conditions in your family. These details are an important tool for predicting your disease risk.
- 4 RELAX It's natural to be anxious at an appointment. Some patients even suffer from white-coat hypertension, which means their blood pressure rises when they are in the doctor's office. When you arrive, take a few deep breaths and remember that your doctor's goal is the same as yours—to keep you healthy.
- 5 BE HONEST You shouldn't be embarrassed to talk about anything with your doctor. Leaving out details or misleading your doctor can adversely affect your care, so be sure to disclose everything.

FAREWELL TO A FAVORITE

BY HEATHER DONAHOE

RASCAL FLATTS, one of country music's most-beloved acts, hits the road one more time

Twenty years ago, Gary LeVox, Jay DeMarcus and Joe Don Rooney were just three guys playing a regular Tuesday night gig at Nashville's Fiddle and Steel Guitar Bar. It was at this smoky little honky-tonk that the trio would become Rascal Flatts—thanks to an audience member who suggested the name one night.

The bar has long-since closed, but Rascal Flatts has gone on to record 17 number-one hits—songs like “Bless the Broken Road,” “My Wish” and “Fast Cars and Freedom”—selling more than 23 million albums and 11 million concert tickets. And with 40-plus awards to their name, Rascal Flatts’ trophy stash is larger than any other country group in the past decade.

But earlier this year, the trio announced they would commemorate their 20th anniversary with the Rascal Flatts Farewell: Life Is A Highway Tour, slated to run from early summer until late fall at venues across the United States. And while Rascal Flatts isn't divulging any specific plans for the future beyond their final encore this year, lead vocalist LeVox, 49; bassist DeMarcus, 48; and guitarist/banjo player Rooney, 44, are already looking back with gratitude and ahead with excitement.

What felt right about wrapping things up at the 20-year mark?

Jay DeMarcus: “Knowing we were approaching our 20th anniversary as a band gave us a moment to reflect. We all decided that this was also the perfect time to take a breath and kind of see what is next for us all of as individuals and as a band.”

Gary LeVox: “Twenty years is a huge milestone for anything and one we never even dreamed of reaching!”

How are you hoping to say goodbye to your fans on this last tour?

Joe Don Rooney: “We’ve been moving so fast these past 20 years that we’ve never really taken the time to go back and touch on all the amazing memories we’ve had together. This year is going to be a big celebration of everything we’ve experienced.”

JD: “It will be a very different show as we look back on 20 wonderful years and celebrate our fans and what they’ve meant to us. While it is bittersweet—and there will undoubtedly be some sad moments—we want to leave them with only the best memories of what our music has meant to them, and also leave them knowing how much appreciation we have for them and what they’ve allowed us to do.”

When you think back over the past two decades, what memories really stand out?

GL: “One I will never forget is when I brought a lady, who was going through chemo at the time, and her husband on stage during our performance of “Skin.” The lady had a bandana on due to having no hair, and her husband had shaved his head for her. They danced on stage as we sang “Skin” to them. We were telling their story, and there wasn't a dry eye in the house. I'm so thankful I got to experience that! It will live in me forever.”

JDR: “I'm truly thankful for all the songwriters that contributed and helped make our success possible. “I'm Movin' On” win-

The Zinger folds to a mere 10 inches.

It's not a Wheelchair...

It's not a Power Chair...

It's a Zinger Chair!

More and more Americans are reaching the age where mobility is an everyday concern. Whether from an injury or from the aches and pains that come from getting older—getting around isn't as easy as it used to be. You may have tried a power chair or a scooter. The Zinger is NOT a power chair or a scooter! The Zinger is quick and nimble, yet it is not prone to tipping like many scooters. Best of all, it weighs only 47.2 pounds and folds and unfolds with ease. You can take it almost anywhere, providing you with independence and freedom.

Years of work by innovative engineers have resulted in a personal electric vehicle that's truly unique. They created a battery that provides powerful energy at a fraction of the weight of most batteries. The Zinger features two steering levers, one on either side of the seat. The user pushes both levers down to go forward, pulls them both up to brake, and pushes one while pulling the other to turn to either side. This enables great mobility, the ability to turn on a dime and to pull right up to tables or desks. The controls are right on the steering lever so it's simple to operate and its exclusive footrest swings out of the way when you stand up or sit down. With its rugged yet lightweight aluminum frame, the Zinger is sturdy and durable yet convenient and comfortable! What's more, it easily folds up for storage in a car seat or trunk— you can even gate-check it at the airport like a stroller. Think about it, you can take your Zinger almost anywhere, so you don't have to let mobility issues rule your life. It folds in seconds without tools and is safe and reliable. It holds up to 275 pounds, and it goes up to 6 mph and operates for up to 8 miles on a single charge.

Why spend another day letting mobility issues hamper your independence and quality of life?

Rascal Flatts with patients at Vanderbilt Children’s Hospital in Nashville, Tenn.

What do you hope defines Rascal Flatts’ legacy?

JD: “That we, in some ways, helped broaden the scope of country music, helped make it more mainstream and cut songs that impacted lives.”

JDR: “I hope our peers and heroes in our country music family know that we always tried to stay true to the music we’ve made all these years. And most importantly, with any success we’ve had we’ve continually tried to mirror that by giving back to our community here in Nashville and anywhere else we could to help.”

GL: “That every day we always gave our entire hearts to the music, to the fans. And, our charity work, especially our work with Vanderbilt Hospital.

a while. Luke Combs is enjoying tremendous success and rightly so. Luke checks all the boxes when it comes to being a new, unique and talented country artist. Ingrid Andress's "More Hearts than Mine" is one of the best songs I've heard in quite a while, and Alee's "No One Like You" is a smash. I think there's a new crop of incredible female country artists about to dominate, and it's about time!"

JD: "I love Thomas Rhett, Florida Georgia Line, Old Dominion, Luke Combs, Kane Brown, Carly Pearce and Chris Lane—so many wonderfully gifted artists."

GL: "Carly Pearce, Morgan Wallen, Jimmie Allen and Sammy Arriaga."

Do you anticipate making music again—either together or on your own—at some point?

JDR: "The projects we have in the pipeline for this year are really exciting as they all tie into this feeling of celebration, and it's something we can't wait to share with all of our fans."

GL: "We definitely have some things in the works for this year that we are really excited about, and that includes new music. The three of us are like family. So, looking to the future, I feel like we will be in and out of each other's lives personally and professionally. We're keeping the door open, but only God knows the rest." •
